The application deadlines for Erasmus students interested in studying at the Academy of Fine Arts "P. Vannucci" of Perugia are:

1st June 2023 (for the whole Academic Year and the Autumn Semester);

1st December 2023 (for the Spring Semester).

The procedure foresees a nomination letter sent by email by the Sending Institution and signed by the Institutional Erasmus Coordinator.

This letter has to include the full names and surnames of the selected Erasmus students, their email addresses, the School/Department they are enrolled in and has to be sent to the following addresses:

direttoreamministrativo@abaperugia.org
erasmus@abaperugia.org

The student will receive an email of acceptance within three weeks.

Once the student has been accepted, he/she has to fill in an Application Form

(<http://www.abaperugia.com/upload/allegato-1-211.pdf>) and send it to our Erasmus office to the following email

address: erasmus@abaperugia.org

Upon his/her arrival, the student will have two-weeks time to update, if necessary, the learning agreement.

For the list of classes, codes and credits, please check the “plans of studies” available at the following link:

<https://www.abaperugia.com/piani-di-studio/>

Erasmus incoming students are given the possibility to choose either the first level and the second level courses regardless of the departments they belong to or the academic year they are enrolled to.

HELP FOR ACCOMMODATION

Incoming students who need help in finding an accommodation can contact our erasmus office:

Dott. Orietta Taschini Email: erasmus@abaperugia.org.

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

Incoming students

At the Academy of Fine Arts of Perugia the language used for all classes is Italian and therefore we recommend all incoming students to master at least a B1 level of the Italian language.

Incoming teaching/non-teaching staff

For teaching and non-teaching staff the recommended level is Italian or English B1/B2.
